CONTINUATION OF COMPLAINT:*Elias CARDENAS-Rincon*PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On April 30, 2008, Supervisory Border Patrol Agent J. Anderson was performing line watch operations near Jacumba, California. This area is located approximately twenty five miles east of the Tecate, California, Port of Entry, and approximately one mile north of the United States/Mexico International Border.

At approximately 1:30 A.M., Border Patrol Agent Bouchard, who was operating an infrared scope, informed Agent Anderson of seven individuals walking near his location. Agent Anderson responded to the area and located the group. He identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent. He then conducted an immigration inspection. All seven, including one later identified as the defendant Elias CARDENAS-Rincon, admitted to being citizens and nationals of Mexico without any immigration documents to be present in the United States legally. All seven individuals were arrested and transported to the Boulevard Border Patrol Station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on May 5, 2005 through San Ysidro, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.
